

Breaking the Red Lantern

On the very splendid night of our School Talent Show, we had the pleasure to enjoy the performance given by some P.2-3 students in Cantonese Opera (in English) Team.

Thanks to the training by the teachers from Cha Duk Chang Children's Cantonese Opera Association Limited, we are given a precious chance to appreciate the very quintessence of Chinese traditional form of art in mixture with English Language.

Big thanks to our Emperor, Empress, Princess, Consort Prince, the Attendant and Maidens, your brilliant performance was a tribute to your efforts and sweats spent in a great deal through many practices and rehearsals.

Hats off to you all!

Here comes.... HAMSTER AGENTS!

Our English Musical Team (Senior) proudly presented their performance Hamster Agents at the Drama Festival this March. They also dedicated their work at the School Talent Show in May. All students enjoyed performing on stage and gradually developed the passion of acting. We really thank our talented Mr. Ray Kwok for his great scripts, lyrics and music.

Hamster agents are the embodiment of justice. When the hamsters encounter difficulties, they will always come forward. This time, in order to punish the three siblings who are suspected of abusing hamsters, Hamster agents nearly cause a big mistake. Fortunately, the wise and brave sister defuses the crisis, so that humans and hamsters re-establish a harmonious and mutual relationship.

Family Picnic

27th October 2016 cool and windy
I had a barbecue with my family today. We had a barbecue in Sai Kung because the air was nice. We went there by MTR. After we arrived there, we could see the sky. Some lovely birds flew in the sky. I wanted to catch them but Mum said, 'No!'

First, I flew the kite. When I cut the rope, it was free. Then we had a barbecue. I put some honey on the chicken wings and put some butter on the corn. Then I ate them. They were very yummy! I like them very much! Next, I took photos of some butterflies and bees. The butterflies were beautiful and the bees were cute. Suddenly, a bee chased me! Then I cried.

In the evening, the sun was red. It was the first time for me to see the red sun so I felt very excited! 'I'm very tired. Can I go home?' I said. Lastly, we went home.

Today I felt very happy.

My Diary about Grandpa's Birthday

Friday 14th June rainy and stormy

What a special day! I didn't need to go to school today because the weather was bad. In the morning, I got up at nine o'clock. I played computer games and listened to music with my mother. I felt excited.

In the afternoon, I played with my toys. I sang songs with my father and painted pictures with my mother so we were not bored. I felt happy.

In the evening, I chatted with my friends. I played card games with my parents and friends and tidied my room because it was messy. I felt tired.

A Bad Day

Tom had a bad day today. He played electronic games last night so he was very tired.

Tom woke up and got dressed. He did everything very quickly, but he was late for school this morning. He did not pack his school bag. He felt very worried.

In the English lesson, his English teacher said, 'Where is your English book?' Tom said, 'The English book is at home because I didn't pack my school bag last night.' Tom's teacher was very angry and Tom was very scared.

5A Lin Yu Xi I Couldn't Sleep

I couldn't sleep last night. I didn't know why, but I just couldn't. So I am very exhausted today.

Last night, I did not eat much for dinner. At 10 o'clock, we needed to go to bed. My brother fell asleep very soon. But I couldn't fall asleep in my bed. I tried to close my eyes, but it didn't work. Suddenly, 'Ding, ding, ding,' the alarm clock rang, but it wasn't morning yet. I didn't know why it rang so early. I needed to go out of the bedroom to stop it. After around thirty to forty minutes, I slept finally.

I am so tired today. But one good thing is that I can sleep well tonight!

6A Tang Long Hin Benny the Bad Boy

There was a bad boy called Benny. He was very selfish. He did not share food with others. He didn't care about others' feeling. None of his classmates played with him.

One day, Benny was chasing a bird in the playground. Unluckily, he tripped over a rock. He hurt his knee. It was painful. He cried as loud as a baby.

Then, Ken and Lily, his classmates walked to him. Ken took out a plaster and Lily took out some tissues. She handed the tissues to Benny. He stopped crying. Ken put a plaster on his knee.

After a week Benny changed. He was not selfish anymore. Since then, he knew that friendship was very important. Finally, Benny and his classmates stayed happily ever after!

6D Leung Tsz Yau An Oversea Trip

13th August, 2016

John, Harry and I went to Tokyo Disneyland when we were visiting Japan. We were excited and looking forward to it! The weather was cloudy when we arrived there. Still, we were excited. Before giving our tickets to the entrance-man, we went to a shop to exchange some yen from Hong Kong dollars. Then we quickly passed the entrance and rode on the roller coaster.

There were many people who were waiting to ride on the roller coaster, so we tried the cable car instead. As I had expected, there were many beautiful views of the mountain. Harry brought a camera and took many pretty photos of the mountains. We took our swimsuits with us so we tried the latest water park in Tokyo. Suddenly, it rained. John, who likes waters sports, felt unhappy. To make him smile again, Harry brought him to the indoor water park and I bought him some ice-cream. Luckily, he felt happy again. But first, we went to have lunch because we were hungry. Then, we bought some swimming goggles and changed our suits.

The water was freezing cold when we got in the pool. 'Come on guys! Do some warm-ups and you will be warm!' John shouted. We played in there for thirty minutes then went to the swings.

The swings were high and scary, but we still buckled up and played. It was so scary that we never came back again. Finally, we went to the roller coaster, the one which I loved. I could go on there non-stop and didn't throw up. We tried three times then headed for the exit.

The next day, we will go to London, the place that has a theme called 'London Bridge is falling down.' We are going to be really excited!

5C Zhou Hei My Teachers' Recount

Last Thursday and Friday, I asked two teachers, Miss Bee and Miss Yung about the places they have visited.

Miss Bee has been to Ngong Ping 360 four times. She went there with her sister and friends. She went there by MTR, bus and cable car. She drank some coffee and walked up many stairs there to visit The Big Buddha. She walked to Wisdom Path and took many photos there, too! She thought it was peaceful because she likes nature. She will go there again. Next time she will drive her car there.

Miss Yung has been to Ocean Park three times. She went there with her family. She went there by MTR and bus. She watched the dolphin show. She also rode on the roller coaster! She enjoyed the visit because it was exciting. She thought the dolphins were cute. She will go there again.

I feel satisfied because I have gone to these two places before. I think I will go there next year with my family.

6B Wong Chiu Pok Don Bosco Singing Contest

The students joined Don Bosco Singing Contest last night. The singing contest was held in the school hall. The first singer was Tony. He was singing happily on the stage.

There were many people in the hall. Many girls were Tony's fans. They were shouting when he began to sing. Tony's fans were excited. They were holding some wands and shouting excitedly. Suddenly, a girl threw her wand at Tony. She was not careful and she did not know what to do. She felt so disappointed because she could not find her wand in the darkness.

Tony was on the stage and the wand hit his head. He felt painful, but he did not stop singing. Although Tony was hurt, he did not blame his fans.

Finally, Tony went to the backstage to take a rest. After the contest, the girl talked to Tony, 'Sorry, I threw the wand at you. Did you get hurt?' Tony said, 'I am fine, thank you.' Then, they left the hall happily.

5E Wong Tsz Yau Fun Places in Hong Kong

Dear Adam,

Welcome to Hong Kong! There are many interesting and beautiful places in Hong Kong. Let me tell you some.

You can go to Aberdeen. It is famous for eating seafood such as fish, crabs and prawns. They are very juicy and yummy. You can go there by MTR. Try it!

You can go to the Peak. You can watch the beautiful scenery at the Peak. I think going to watch the night views is better. Also, you can go shopping, too. You can go there by the Peak Tram.

Next, you can go to Ocean Park. You can ride on a cable car. I think it is exciting. You can ride on a fairy wheel. The fairy wheel is beautiful. Also, you can watch some sea animals such as dolphins, sea horses and jellyfish. They are interesting.

Finally, you can go to the shopping malls to do some shopping. There are many shops you can choose. Some shops have sales too. You can buy shoes, clothes and toys.

Hope you will have a wonderful trip in Hong Kong.

Enjoy your time!

Best wishes,
Sonia

6C IRTP Chan Tsz Ho Don Bosco Singing Contest

Today the weather was sunny and hot. We had Don Bosco singing contest at Salesian Yip Hon Millennium Primary School. There were a lot of students who joined the singing contest. My friend Jacky liked singing so he joined the singing contest too.

When Jacky was singing on the stage, his classmates shouted his name loudly. They waved their fluorescent sticks happily.

Suddenly, one of his classmates threw her fluorescent stick at Jacky carelessly. Jacky was shocked and fell down on the stage.

Although Jacky was shocked by his classmate, he did not stop singing. He stood up and took the microphone. Finally, Jacky won in the singing contest.
